See You IN CHURCH Sunday

CONFUSION of CREATION

How interesting are the workings of God! He takes the nucleus, the cell, the molecule and the protoplasm and forms staggering miracles. He even takes bodies who have gone almost to Hell and makes men out of them. The laboratories and the human bodies are His work shops. It was He who pulled the switch that set it all to work.

True science and true religion never conflict. God does not contradict Himself. His words and His works harmonize. Modern knowledge compels the revision of the theory that the earth is flat and that the sun daily revolves around it. Yet, it remains true that... "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." Religion once declared the work of creation was completed in six days of twenty-four hours each, and outlined in detail the creative process. With increased knowledge teachers are much less dogmatic as to time involved and procedures followed. God is still saying... "My thoughts are not as your thoughts, neither are your ways..."

His church is a good place to learn that fancied discord blend in harmony. Increasing numbers of people are able to see through His microscope... "longue in trees, books in running brooks, sermons in stones, and good in everything." Every scientific finding by man is rooted in God. This is the confusion of creation.

Responsibility Sermon Theme

"Our Responsibility for the New Year" will be the sermon theme of Rev. Clarence E. Miller Sunday morning at the First Methodist Church. The morning service begins with organ prelude at 10:50 o'clock.

Nursery care for infants and young children is provided during the church service for the convenience of parents who wish to attend.

According to Rev. Miller there has been a steady increase in church attendance which is crowding the capacity of the facilities. Evidences of an increased interest in church activities is seen in all departments.

The Sunday school, which meets at 9:30 a.m. under the direction of M. R. Ransom, has made a substantial growth. Departments and classes for all ages of children, youth and adults is provided. Plans are under way for the expanding of facilities which will make room for an ever-growing church to match the needs of our growing community, said Rev. Miller.

Missionaries To Speak Here

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Brenen, visiting missionaries, will tell of their activities Wednesday night, January 16, at the First Baptist Church here.

The Brenens have spent some 20 years in missionary work in Indonesia and Borneo. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. Pastor C. Miles Northrup has announced.

REV. JERRY ZWALL, Will Appear Here

Special Services Set For Hammerton Church

A unique presentation of the Gospel will be given January 15 through January 21 at the Hammerton Tract Community Church, Elliott and Milton streets. Rev. Donald Flentag has announced. The special services will begin at 7:30 each night.

Rev. and Mrs. Jerry Zwall of Los Angeles will be the speakers for the services. Both are graduates of the Los Angeles Bible Institute and Bob Jones University.

The couple has been featured at Bible conferences and youth rallies on the West Coast.

Sacrament Theme Of Church Text

The earnest and consistent effort to worship God spiritually and to follow the example of Christ Jesus in daily life brings rich rewards, declares the Bible Lesson on "Sacrament" in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

The Golden Text is from the Psalms (24:3,4): "Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart."

In a Bible selection Peter writes (1 Pet. 3:12, 13, 15), "The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers; . . . And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good? . . . But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear."

A passage from "Science and Health with Key to Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy reads, "Are we benefited by praying? Yes, the desire which goes forth hungering after righteousness is blessed of our Father, and it does not return unto us void" (p. 2).

Reflections

By J. Hugh Sherley, Jr.

CURLS BROUGHT HAPPINESS . . .

Amy Schafer, 19, comely, loyal, good cook and full of fun never had a serious suitor. She'd never heard a "Wolf" whistle nor been invited to sit in the moonlight and "Neck." One reason was her hair, though soft as silk, golden brown with reddish tinge, it was slick as a seal's and straight as a needle. Her clothes were serviceable, no style; she was just another female until she came to visit an Aunt.

Amy was taken to a Beauty Shop. Her hair was waved, and dressed by an artist to frame her heart shaped face. It was a transformation; she was beautiful. A new dress accentuated her Venus form. Her Aunt gave a party for her and for the first time in her life boys waited on her, made her a Queen. Her crown was her hair.

"I don't know how many 'Wolf' whistles she's heard, if any, but I do know she is to be married to one of the finest boys in town.
